CARLISLE'S COMMITTEES

A Serious Problem That is Giving the Kentuckian Some Traible.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 14.—It is whispered here that Carlisle and Morrison are having a somewhat serious time ever their Ways and Means Committee. Whila Carliste had considerable support from the North, there was little of it that was of precisely the character that he would care to put hito a committee of this nature. He wants for it, of course, men who are on-tirely in accord with his views of turiff reform, and who are of sufficient ability and experieuce to cope with the told heads on the other side, such as Kelly, Kasson and others, who will have to be given the minority places on the committee. Sald an old politician who is inside the ring and watches the movements of the animais pretty closely: "You see there are plenty of men who would do well for the work, but they all come from the entre sec-tion. Of course, Morrison is to be Chair-man. Carlisle told him that some time ago, and told him he wanted him to select his own associates, the only restriction being that he should find men well in accord with the tariff referrir iden. Well, he went to work, his lirst move being to call upon Ran Tucker, of Virginia, and offer him a place on the Committee.

"To his surprise Tucker declined it, saying he pitterred mother position, if he took any. Then, when he came to look to the North for his material, he found grent difficulty in getting the Of course there were plenty of men on the Democratic sldfrom the Northern States, but it is difficult to find among them a half dozen fitted by duty, and if they are found it is not every one of them who will undertuke the task. Of course Morrison can not take anybody from illinois, for one man from that State is sufficient, and while he may find one in . Indum and one in New York that will about exhaust the list, undangerous man for so important a position, for heak as "mach beyond Carlisle's views on the tariff as some of the others are this side of them."

"What will be the result?" "Can't say yet, though it looks as though the Ways and Means Committee would be the most difficult tack that the Speaker has Plagah Eucompiner, No. 9, second and to encounter, and loss likely to be satisfactory when arranged?

Ahout an hour later I was informed that there was trouble in Dunne's apartments. I went up and heard loud talk in Dunne's room. After waiting a few minutes, I heard the report of a pistoi, followed by a plercing stream. I then forced open the door and found Miss Keiter lying on the floor with blood streaming from a wound in the head. Mr. and Mrs. Dunne were in the room, apparently horrorstricken. I raised the body up and laid her on a sofe. She opened her eyes and explained "Oh, my God," then fell back and expired. Mr. and Mrs. Dunno then left the room. The Coroner was notified and ordered the hody of the unfortunate lady to be removed to the undertaker's in the Bowery, and postponed the inquest."

Further Investigation Respecting Her Identity—Pronounced Respectable by Those Who Know Her—The Theory of Snichle not Entertained.

Cincinnati Post,

This morning Walter and Henrietta McDaulel applied at the office of Chief of Police Reilly and asked to be shown the sacque and hat found on the river bank at the foot of Smlth street two weeks ago. The garments were produced and immediately identified as those worn by Mary Eliza Hubbard, of Washington, Ky., a small hamlet about four miles from Maysville. Mrs. McDaniel showed a picture of the girl, which proved con-clusively the hat and sacque to be the same as worn at the time the picture was

Mrs. McDaniei says she moved to her present residence in this city, on Center street, near Lewis and Fulton, from Maysville, Ky., where she has resided for a number of years. For ten months prior to her removal to this city Mary Hubbard, who was also known at one lime as Mollie Hubbard, lived with her as a do-STEEL rails are now selling in this onestle, and during that time she had allike manner. Mrs. McDanlel says further that the girl was never called "Ailie" to her knowledge. She was an orphan, and was raised by her uncle, Jas. Tucker, a tobacco merchant residing at Washington, Ky. About four years ago, at the age of twenty, Mary married John Laton, who still resides at Washington, Ky., he furnished her wedding outtlt. A boy was born in course of time, but after leading two years of wedded misery she was compelled to seek a divorce from her husband, because of his brutal treatment. The divorce was granted, and her uncle took her back and provided for visions of the Riddleberger bill as ulti- her. Their child died shortly after, and, not wishing to remain a burden on hei nncle, she went to house-keeping, and was supported far awhile by her brother, John Hubbard, now living in Mason county, Ky. She soon obtained employ-ment in the family of Mr. Lurtey for a few months, until last October she came to live with Mrs. McDaniel, in Maysville. During her residence with Mrs. McDanlel, Mary, or "Allie," received visits from Jeff. Hancock, but of J. E. McDonald, one of "Allie's," lovers, Mrs. McDaniel knows nothing.

On coming to Cincinnati Mra. McDaniel left Mary in Maysville, and, as they quarreled shortly before separating, the later movements of the girl are unknown, while the name of Mollie, Howard, but afterward dropped it for her malden name, Mary Eliza Hubbard.

When questioned as to her reason for delaying so long her identification of the clothes, Mrs. McDaniel said:

Allie Hubbard Mystery.

Ripley special to Commercial-Gazette. The item that Miss Allie Hubbard had been seen in company with McDonald Tuesday evening at Falmouth, Ky., is certainly a mistake so far as McDonald is concerned. Mr. Frank Bradley, a friend of McDonnld's from Bracken county, was here on the lookont for him Tuesday, and on the afternoon of that day found him stripping tobacco on the farm of Mr. Churles Oshorn, two miles south of this place in Kentucky. Bradley and McDonald came to this place at a late hour Tuesday evening, and went to Maysville on the midnight boat. McDonald could not have been in both places at once, and he was seen and dentified here by a number of persons. Agam, Miss Hubbartl was not annoyed by the attentions of Jeff. Hancock, who, on the contrary, had been endeavoring to shake her off for some time.

Miss Hubbard pawned a valuable gold ring with a Maysville saloon-keeper, and with the proceeds evidently paid her way to Cincinnatl. It is not definitely known on what boat she went to Cincinnatl, but an examination of the reglaters of the various up-river packets will likely disclose the name. Her disappoarance, then, could not have been a deliberate Idan to deceive Hancock, his actions showing that he cared nothing for her, and he would not likely attempt to follow thom. It is also positively known that the girl had no money other than that from the ade of the ring, and as McDonald was plentifully supported in the support of the ring. tively known that the girl had no money from Khartoum that only one-third of Hicks Pasha's army has been destroyed in the battle with El Mahdi, adding that amount to join him if they intended eloping together.

While the suicide theory is not gener ally accepted here, yet many believe that the girl has been foully dealt with and the cloak and hat placed on the river bank to mislead the public.

How did Prof. Leary, the gentleman who chaims to have seen them together nt Falmouth, know that the lady was Miss Hubbard?

EROWN HANGED.

of a Colored Mursterer North Carolina.

HALIFAX, N. C., Dec. 14.—Enocli Brown, colored, was hanged here Friday morning. The murder for which Brown swing was particularly brutal, malicious and coldblooded. It was committed August 17 near Tillery Station, on the line of a branch railroad. Brown, who had been living in that neighborhood only about a month, had that day a quarrel with his wife. This began early in the morning and became intensified until finally all the brute in the negro developed Itself. At noon Brown went home from his work iu the field to dinner. His wife was standing at a table making bread. He stepped in the door, picked up an axe, and as she turned, half facing him, struck her a blow on the neck, nearly severing her head from her body. He then ate his dinner and returned to work, leaving home at night and burying her body in a shallow grave near his cabin door, where it was found by neighbors three weeks The murderer was captured, tried and convicted last month. He confessed the deed, but said he only intended to scare his wife and not to kill her. The execution took place at the jail at 7:30 in the morning in a heavy rain atorm. The execution was private and was seen by only forty persons. The prisoner made a confession and died by strangulation. A large crowd gathered outside the jall yard, mainly negroes, including hundreds of wo-men. The Sheriff being absent in Texas after John Lee, the escaped nurderer, Deputy Sheriff J. D. Derr was in charge of the arrangements.

SALVATION RIOTS.

Bloody Battle Between the Populace and the Cranks in Phliadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14,-A desperate battle took place late at night between about 300 roughs, of Kensington, and the Salvation Army at the barracks on Fifth and Berks street. The fight was pro-longed, bitter, and a second attack re-sulted in the partial demolishment of the barracks of the army and the complete route of the religious enthusiasts, with many injured and wounded. Police Office Fields was Luct. It was now a matter of life and death, and the police fired upon the mob. The greatest confusion followed. The roughs were undaunted, however, and the attack was renewed, when the police for the second time opened fire. The second volicy had the desired effect. Few arrests were made, but quite a number were injured.

Death of General Edward Hamilton, PORTLAND, Oregon, Dec. 14.—General Edward Hamilton, aged eighty-two, died in this city after a brief illness. He served with distinction in the Mexican war. For a number of years he was prominently identified with Ohio politics, conducting at one time a lively Whig paper. In 1850 he was appointed by President Taylor Territorial Secretary of Oregon, and served while General Joseph Lane acted as Provisional Governor of the Territory.

H., druggist, which one of the burglars who escaped a few nights ago secreted. The warrant upon which Crnudall, the alleged burglar, was captured the other night, was to-day nollied and a new one issued, and he was rearrested.

C. S. MINER & BRO.,

THE MINISTER WHO FAILS to interest his congregation and build up his church is generally accused of being a poor preacher, or of not studying hard enough. That is not always where the trouble comes from. Dyspepsia and liver disorders are responsible for many a dull sermon and many a vacant pulpit. When the Dominie's digestive apparatus is working wrong, and his nerves are giving him pain, and his brain refuses to do its duty, it is almost impossible to make or to preach a good sermon. Give your suffering minister a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters. You will see its effect on next Sunday's preaching. The Rev. Mr. Zehring, of Codoras, Pa., was paralyzed, and could not walk except with crutches, until Brown's Iron Bitters made a new man of him. The Rev. Mr. White, of Rock Hill, S. C., says: "It restored me to strength and vigor." Brown's Iron Bitters is not only for the minister, but for all people.
